

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

There are two significant costs in becoming a licenced International HypnoSlimmer consultant.

1. Monthly license fee to enable continued use of our files and folders £10.00 per month payable via standing order.
2. A one off payment of £250 for access to password protected files and folders for your personal use payable to your tutor now. Please note that the files can only be used for your personal use if your monthly standing order is maintained.

All consultants should:

1. Be a trained and qualified Hypnotherapist of good standing in their respective countries and provide proof of the same if requested.
2. Maintain appropriate insurance cover for their country both for professional indemnity and public liability and provide proof of the same if requested. (After practitioner training)
3. Maintain membership of an appropriate professional body in their respective country and provide proof of the same if requested. (After practitioner training)
4. Ensure that where their country of origin is not the United Kingdom that nothing within the HypnoSlimmer system breaches local laws. Where this is the case it is the responsibility for the consultant to ensure they conform to local law through adaptation of the HypnoSlimmer system or if necessary the cessation its use. Mentors will assist with the adaptation of the system but not how to conform to local law.
5. Maintain a professional standard of practice and image for their practice and for that of HypnoSlimmer.

6. Respond to any HypnoSlimmer enquiry within 24 business hours. Where this is not possible an appropriate out of hours message should be maintained.
7. Approach hypnoslimmer management with problems or issues with the HypnoSlimmer system in the first instance.
8. Not be a member of, or promote any other weight control system that is considered contradictory or direct competition with the purposes or aims of the HypnoSlimmer organisation or its methodologies.
9. Follow the HypnoSlimmer system for weight loss in its entirety for every client that wishes to follow that system.
10. Maintain a good understanding of what the HypnoSlimmer system means and where they are unsure will ask BEFORE using this on a client.
11. Maintain the monthly subscription fee, currently set at £10 per month. (This fee can only be changed by the HypnoSlimmer management with three months notice and then by no more than 20% per annum).
12. Licensed Practitioners must agree to use the HypnoSlimmer logo wherever they are using the system and give appropriate credit to the system used.
13. HypnoSlimmer is trademarked and HypnoSlimmer documents are copyright and must not be distributed to any non HypnoSlimmer licensed practitioners in whole or part.
14. The HypnoSlimmer system must be credited in any publicity or testimonials.
15. Agree to sell the HypnoSlimmer system at the agreed price range, plus or minus the agreed discounts. Or the equivalent local pre-agreed rate for their country or region.

16. Where any of this is not true or found subsequently to be not true the HypnoSlimmer organisation reserves the right to remove a consultant without notice and without refund of any monies paid to that point.
17. Should termination notice be given then the consultant in question will be expected to remove all appropriate branded information from all literature, websites other promotional materials within 7 days of being informed of this action and immediately cease using the HypnoSlimmer system, barring the finishing of any ongoing and pre-booked treatments.
18. All HypnoSlimmer intellectual property remains the sole property of Brian Glenn.
19. HypnoSlimmer consultants are allowed to use the HypnoSlimmer system as part of their practice upon payment of the initial fee, but can only claim HypnoSlimmer consultant status as long as they remain within the system and in good standing with the HypnoSlimmer organisation.
20. In any event none of the HypnoSlimmer system may be used in any way to create a rival system or organisation to that of HypnoSlimmer. Should this happen then HypnoSlimmer will not hesitate to take legal action against that rival organisation and/or individual.
21. A HypnoSlimmer consultant can leave the approved scheme with one months notice in writing or email. They may continue to use the methods and techniques given to them during practitioner training but not any of the bolt ons, logos or other copyright material, which should be immediately removed from all literature, websites and other publicly available material. If they wish to re-join then an administration fee of £50.00 will be charged.
